

INTERNATIONAL HOUSE FALL 2009 PROGRAMS

Events are free to I-House residents, members, alumni, $5 for UC Berkeley students & staff & $10 for the public unless otherwise noted.

Intl. Career Symposium with Rick Steves - Promoting Global Peace & Understanding Through Travel
Tuesday, October 27, 7 pm
Acclaimed travel writer and 2009 Citizen Diplomat of the Year Rick Steves will headline UC Berkeley's free 2 day symposium, October 27-28, highlighting his seminal trip to Iran, featured on PBS.

Germany's Friday the 13th - November 9th: A Fateful Time in Modern German History
Thursday, October 29, 7:30 pm
Panel discussion sponsored by the Fulbright Association with John Rodden (keynote speaker), University of Texas, Austin, Walter Sokel, University of Virginia, and John Connelly, UC Berkeley.

Creative Job Search Skills Workshop with Joe Lurie, I-House Executive Director Emeritus (1988- 2007)
Saturday, October 31, 1:30 pm (Exclusively for I-House Alumni)
Joe is an executive coach, consultant, speaker and intercultural trainer, who also teaches how to navigate and network through today's tough job market. Pre-register at ihouse.berkeley.edu.

Globalization Film Series: PBS Frontline/World documentary - Children of the Taliban
With Discussant: Sharon Tiller, Executive Director, Frontline World
Tuesday, November 3, 7 pm

Lodestar Dinner Program with Saul Griffith (I-H Alumnus 1994-95)
Audacious Dreams: Innovations in Green Technology
Wednesday, November 4, 6 pm
MacArthur "Genius" 2007: Griffith is an inventor whose innovations serve the global public good. I-House Alumni, Members & Host Families - $20, General Public - $25.

UC Human Rights Fellows Conference
Thursday, November 5, 10 am - 5 pm
Graduate students work with leading organizations in the field and bring current human rights issues to the UC Berkeley campus community. Admission is free.

Globalization Film Series: PBS Frontline/World documentary- Ghana-Digital Dumping Ground & Egypt, Middle East Inc. with discussants: Sharon Tiller, Executive Director, Frontline World & Charlotte Buchen, Producer and Reporter, Frontline/World
Monday, November 9, 7 pm

Malalai Joya - A Woman Among Warlords: Human Rights and the War for "Hearts and Minds"
Tuesday, November 10, 7:30 pm
The youngest female member of parliament in Afghanistan, whose bravery and vision have won her an international following. She will be signing her autobiography prior to her lecture.

Jeremy Kinsman - Democracy Development as a Foreign Policy Goal
Thursday, November 12, 7:30 pm
One of Canada's most experienced diplomats, ambassador to the EU, Deputy Permanent Representative to the UN in New York, and Minister for Political Affairs in Washington.

Abbas Milani, Iranian-American Historian, Iranologist, and Author
Tuesday, November 17, 7:30 pm
The Director of the Iranian Studies Program at Stanford, Research Fellow & Co-Director of the Iran Democracy Project at the Hoover Institution.

Interface Between Biodiversity and Culture with Debal Deb (I-H Alumnus & Current Resident)
Wednesday, November 18, 7:30 pm
Indigenous cultures in South Asia protect biodiverse species in today's globalized world.

Globalization Film Series: Images in Celebration of Life
Tuesday, December 1, 7 pm
This film and conversation with director Osprey Orielle Lake, will explore art and new narratives as tools in building bridges between cultures and in renewing contemporary relationships.

Christos Papoutsy: Ships of Mercy: The True Story of the Rescue of the Greeks, Smyrna September 1922- discussion and book signing.
Thursday, December 3, 7 pm